DIRECTOR'S PICKS

Henri Bourgeois Sauvignon Blanc Quincy 13 19 48

Haute Victoire

Loire Valley, 2017

Quincy is situated in the eastern Loire and bears some of oldest vineyards in the region. The wines from the village are said to be softer than those from neighboring Sancerre and Pouilly-Fume and this excellent example from the Bourgeois estate illustrates just this. A delightful pale-golden in color. On the nose, delicate notes of citrus fruits and sweet geranium. On the palate, fresh and crisp but simultaneously round and well balanced. The finish is fruity and aromatic.

Vignamaggio Chianti Classico DOCG 13 19 48

Terre di Prenzano

Tuscany, 2015

Terre di Prenzano Chianti Classico is produced with 100% Sangiovese grapes from the heart of the Chianti zone. Intense red color, fresh, fruity bouquet. On the nose, notes of red fruits typical of the varietal. On the palate, lingering blueberry and dark plum, with slight hints of vanilla. A well-structured wine with light tannins and a balanced finish.
